

Live

With a 20% lower cost of living than the average US city, Toledo still has everything a “Big City” has to offer, without the price! Voted three times as an All-American city, Toledo offers affordability and accessibility.

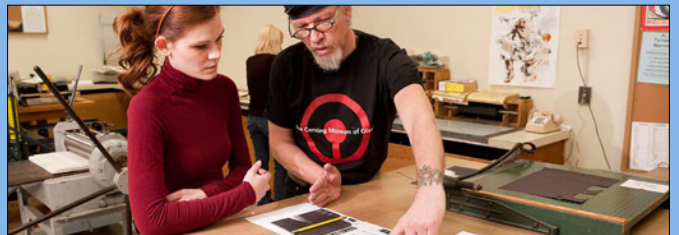

Work

Toledo has the talent, capital, network and university partnerships to continue to provide new and unique professional opportunities. As measured by capital investment, the Toledo region is one of the fastest growing industrial regions in the nation. One of the best locations in the nation, Toledo is within an 8-hour drive of over 60% of the North American population.

Learn

In the Toledo Region, the commitment to education is deeply rooted and strong. Building on an extensive public school system supplemented by many private choices, the region provides a rich array of post-secondary educational opportunities, including nationally recognized schools of engineering, pharmacy, education, business, medicine and law.

Enjoy

Home to the Toledo Mud Hens and Walleye, the Toledo Art Museum, Ballet and Symphony as well as many theatres, Toledo offers sport, arts and culture. The Lake Erie shoreline offers remarkable fishing, boating, bird watching, hiking and other outdoor activities. From our Farmer’s Market to our spectacular Toledo Zoo, there is always something to do right around the corner. And did we mention how easy the parking is?
